We Shall Overcome

SUBMITTED BY

RROAR CODING & ROBOTICS ACADEMY

Rroar's Original Oratory Competition for Spring 2021 was an emotionally charged weekend with 55 elementary school speakers taking the stage to talk about powerful topics like climate change, global warming, health care, discrimination, bullying, Covid-19 and the day-to-day challenges of life by giving voice to the theme "We Shall Overcome."

Competition judges shared their own perspectives. Paul Romero, a credentialed school psychologist with Fremont School District, challenged the kids to follow through with what they stated. He encouraged them to cultivate their ideas and take responsibility to make things happen. Megan Wingo, Deputy Public Defender Fresno County, talked about the importance of communication and using one's voice to help others. Renu Bhatia, VP NVIDIA, stressed the importance of communication in careers.

Rounds were presided over by Heather Sherburn of Lammerville Unified School District and Angela Ehrlich of Soledad School District. Gurvinder Ahluwalia, Founder & CEO of Digital Twin Labs and an Advisor on Digitization to the Gates Foundation, was the guest of honor at the final round of the event. Gaganbir Kaur, Toastmaster of the Year 2019-2020; Christa Cannon, singer, actress and social activist; Elizabeth Ramirez, executive life coach; along with JJ Kapur, 2017 National Original Oratory Winner, were part of the judges' panel.

Rroar's Creative Director and Coach for the Original Oratory Program, Ish A. Kaur, along with Amanda Chagoya, Marketing Executive, and Mitchell Swanner, author and singer, were there to support their students through the event.
